

Moore's Creek flows into the Rivanna River, which flows into the James River, which empties into the Chesapeake Bay. Any improvements we can make upstream helps the overall health of downstream waters, as highlighted in red.

The James River Watershed

