RIVANNA WATER & SEWER AUTHORITY TENTATIVE DATE ESTABLISHED FOR JOINT MEETING

Charlottesville, VA (Thursday, September 2, 2010) – The Rivanna Water & Sewer Authority (Authority) announced today that Tuesday, September 21, 2010 at 3:00 pm has been tentatively set as a date and time for a joint meeting of four boards to discuss the water supply plan. The four boards include the Charlottesville City Council, Albemarle County Board of Supervisors, Albemarle County Service Authority Board of Directors, and the Rivanna Water & Sewer Authority Board of Directors. A location for the tentative meeting is now being researched and is expected to be announced within the next few days.

The meeting is tentative as was suggested during a discussion by the Authority's Board at its regular meeting on August 24. The Authority's Board agreed that there was no reason for a joint meeting if each of the four boards individually reached the same conclusion regarding the reaffirmation of the 2006 water supply plan by September 20. The setting of a tentative date allows the members of all Boards to reserve their calendar for a discussion of differences in the event such discussion among the boards is needed.
